- (1) to procure the right for Licensee to continue using the Software; or
- (2) to replace or modify the Software so that it becomes non-infringing, or
- (3) if in Symbio Sweden's view neither of the foregoing alternatives is reasonable, Licensee shall return the Software to Symbio Sweden and if the infringement claim is occurring within six (6) months from the Commencement Date then Symbio Sweden will reimburse Licensee with an amount corresponding to the total License Fee paid by Licensee during such period and if the claim is occurring thereafter, Licensee will be reimbursed with an amount equaling fifty (50) per cent of the License Fee paid by Licensee under this Agreement.

- (b) No party shall be liable for any indirect or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of profits, business interruption, loss or inaccuracy of information), even if the party has been advised of the possibility of such damages.
- (c) Symbio Sweden shall not be liable for any loss of data.

The waiver by either party of a breach of this Agreement or any right hereunder shall not constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach of this Agreement, nor shall any delay by either party to exercise any right under this Agreement operate as a waiver of any such right.

This Agreement shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties pertaining to the Software and supersedes in their entirety any and all written or oral agreements previously existing between the parties with respect to such subject matter.

Licensee acknowledges that it is not entering into this Agreement on the basis of any representations not expressly contained herein and hereby waives any rights it may have or obtain to make a claim based on any misrepresentation of Symbio Sweden, or any of its employees, agents or other representatives.
